

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

QUARRY VISITOR CENTER

HABS UT-138

Dinosaur National Monument

U.S. Highway 40, 8 miles north of Jensen

Jensen vicinity

Uintah County

Utah

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

Roger Whitacre, photographer, September 2008

- UT-138-1 Looking southwest, Visitor Center, general setting
- UT-138-2 Looking east, general setting, showing rear and side of building
- UT-138-3 Looking west, building front, Exhibit Shelter is on right, Administrative Wing is on left
- UT-138-4 Looking northwest, building front
- UT-138-5 Looking north, building front, angle view
- UT-138-6 Looking northwest, building side, showing cylindrical Administrative Wing and ramp on right and South Wing on left
- UT-138-7 Looking northwest, serpentine entry ramp and Administrative Wing
- UT-138-8 Looking north, Administrative Wing close-up, showing damage; with monitor strips on wall cracks
- UT-138-9 Looking east, building rear, Exhibit Shelter on left, one-story South Wing on right
- UT-138-10 Looking northeast, rear wall, with door
- UT-138-11 Looking west, Exhibit Shelter, showing Upper Visitor Gallery on left, and quarry wall on right
- UT-138-12 Looking northeast, lower level exhibit space, showing quarry wall and front wall
- UT-138-13 Looking north as quarry wall from Upper Visitor Gallery, near west wall
- UT-138-14 Looking west, first floor, South Wing, window to Paleontology Lab
- UT-138-15 Looking southeast, first floor, Administrative Wing interior
- UT-138-16 Looking west, first floor, South Wing, hallway to offices, library, and Paleontology Lab
- UT-138-17 Looking west, first floor, South Wing, library

- UT-138-18 Looking east, first floor, South Wing, Paleontology Lab, showing shift of floor, seen in door jamb
- UT-138-19 Looking northwest, first floor, South Wing, Paleontology Lab. The quarry wall can be seen through the window
- UT-138-20 Looking west, first floor, Exhibit Shelter, showing stairway to second floor exhibit area, and first floor rear door
- UT-138-21 Looking east, second floor, Exhibit Shelter with quarry wall on left and Upper Visitor Gallery on right
- UT-138-22 Looking southeast, second floor, Administrative Wing interior

The original, historic documents shown in photographs below are located in the National Park Service, Denver Service Center, Technical Information Center, Denver, Colorado. They are in the public domain.

- UT-138-23 Original Drawing: Design Perspective View
- UT-138-24 Original Construction Drawing: Site Plan
- UT-138-25 Original Construction Drawing: Plan at Lower Level
- UT-138-26 Original Construction Drawing: Plan at Upper Level
- UT-138-27 Original Construction Drawing: Plans of Circular Element, Lower Level and Upper Level
- UT-138-28 Original Construction Drawing: Exterior Elevations, North and South
- UT-138-29 Original Construction Drawing: South Elevation
- UT-138-30 Original Construction Drawing: Exterior Elevations, East and West
- UT-138-31 Original Construction Drawing: West Elevation and East Elevation
- UT-138-32 Original Construction Drawing: Section Through Building
- UT-138-33 Original Construction Drawing: General Cross Section
- UT-138-34 Original Construction Drawing: General Cross Section, showing sun angles
- UT-138-35 Original Construction Drawing: Foundation Plan and Notes
- UT-138-36 Original Construction Drawing: Roof & Floor Framing Plans and Details, Roof Framing Plan Administration Area, and Second Floor Framing Plan Administration Area
- UT-138-37 Original Construction Drawing: Typical Cross Section & Details
- UT-138-38 Original Construction Drawing: Column and Beam Connection Detail
- UT-138-39 Original Construction Drawing: Foundation Details & Schedule

QUARRY VISITOR CENTER
HABS UT-138
INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS
(Page 3)

- UT-138-40 Original Construction Drawing: Exterior Details, Elevation of Typical Window Unit, Section Through Typical Window Unit, Section Through Skylight
- UT-138-41 Original Construction Drawing: Miscellaneous Details
- UT-138-42 Original Construction Drawing: Stair Details